

Following the Fridenstines

Here we are at the end of the month of November reflecting on God's goodness to us during this Thanksgiving week. This is my favorite letter to write as our family just wants to thank and praise God for all that He has done this year. It has been an unexpected year, but I think more blessings have come as a result of our 2020!! We are truly grateful to God for...

- Seeing 18 precious souls personally saved this year so far.
- Seeing 14 people follow Christ in believer's baptism (with a couple more in sight before the year ends).
- Having about 25 people actively in discipleship.
- Helping our youngest, Isaí, to accept Christ as his personal Saviour and then baptizing him.
- Having extra time with our kids to help them more personally with their school work, play games, do puzzles, read books, watch their personalities develop, and teach them to work.
- Having time to re-focus and get all the unnecessary "stuff" out of our schedules.
- The backyard that God has allowed us to use, develop and open up for investing in others.
- The official start to our Latin America mission board - ABIL Misiones
- The calling of my assistant pastor and his family, the Menjivar's, to Boaco, Nicaragua to plant a church.
- An amazing missions conference where we were able to take on for support and send out the first missionaries from our own ministry as well as having several young people surrender publicly to full-time service.
- Our online services, YouTube music and Sunday School lessons and other digital advancements made during this year.
- The end of another successful school year although we suddenly had to learn Google Classroom and teach all of our teachers and students how to use it!
- Now online Bible Seminary classes - a dream for the future that came to real life because of 2020.
- Health, safety, a wise El Salvadorian president, the privilege of being a missionary, supporting churches...and the list could go on and on and on.

Thank you for your faithfulness to Christ and to giving to missions in this unique year. We love and appreciate you. Enjoy your family as you focus on God's goodness during this holiday season. We are praying for you.
